Iowa Crafts: 45

October 29, 2021 – January 19, 2022
Kinney-Lindstrom Gallery

Competition for this exhibition was open to all residents of Iowa above high school age. Entry categories were clay, fiber, metal/wood, jewelry, and other craft media. The juror for Iowa Crafts: 45 is Jeffrey Ebeling, Executive Director at the Clear Lake Art Center.

Rob Wallace of Ames, EYECATCHER, Red elm burl vessel, 22K gold leaf

The purpose of the exhibition is to provide the public with further enriching arts experiences and to promote interest in and recognition of the accomplishments of Iowa artists.

Twenty-one artists entered sixty-four artworks into this year's Iowa Crafts competition. Thirty-two artworks by nineteen artists were selected for display, ranging from long-time artists to students just starting their careers. A great diversity of entries including sculpture, mixed media works, handmade quilts, and pottery were chosen. Individual artists were selected to receive awards for their works. These award winners were announced at the opening reception on Saturday, November 6 at 2:30 pm. Cash awards totaled $1,000, thanks to exhibition sponsor NSB Bank, along with a one-person exhibition. Thank you NSB Bank for sponsoring this exhibition.

38th Annual School Art Exhibition (Grades 9-12)

February 18– April 9, 2022
Center Space Gallery

School Art Image – 2021

Every year the Charles H. MacNider Art Museum celebrates Youth Art Month (March) with an exhibition honoring students and their teachers. The 2022 School Art Exhibition will feature the innovative artwork of high school students (grades 9-12) from public, private and home schools served by Central Rivers Area Education Agency, Clear Lake Regional Office.

Staff Picks

December 10, 2021 – February 5, 2022
Center Space Gallery

George Hurrell, Greta Garbo, gelatin silver print mounted on foam core board, 1930. Gift of Marvin A. Sackner, M.D. (via the Ackerman Foundation) [1993.4.3]

The staff members of the MacNider Art Museum were all asked to choose three works, from the Museum's Permanent Collection, that they liked and wanted to be displayed in the exhibition, Staff Picks. Works in this show are grouped by staff member so that visitors can get to know the people "behind the scenes" at the Museum through their artistic choices.

Creating Her Vision: Artworks Produced by Women

February 4 – April 20, 2022
Kinney-Lindstrom Gallery

Jaune Quick-To-See-Smith, Horse Sense, color lithograph, 1994. Purchased in Honor of Bill Gildner [2009.001]

The MacNider Art Museum has many artworks by female artists in its Permanent Collection. What better way to highlight these artists then by collecting their works in a temporary exhibition during Women's History Month (March)? Join the Museum in celebrating women and their contribution to the history of art in the United States. The exhibition will feature artworks by Kara Walker, Isabel Bishop, Mary Cassatt, Jaune Quick-To-See Smith, along with many others.
